A QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. This instant case is presently on appeal under the Civil Rights Act of 1964 - U. S. Supreme Court 82-6720 28USC 1443 (1) Removal. This instant case was granted a stay during appeal to the US Supreme Court if Appeal timely filed. Said appeal timely filed with original mailing tolling the time (see exhibit)
2. The Federal as well as State courts have ignored stay granted and continued actions. Further appeal for recall of Mandate and Return of State Court records - all proceedings Null and Void made during stay filed on June 28, 1983 - as yet has not gotten the required Docket Number and Notification to Counsel.
3. Further order of June 1, 1983 is invalid because it is made by a single judge (Civil Rights Act of 1964 calls for a three-judge panel) during recall of mandate.
4. Atleast four Supersedeas Bonds have been posted with Federal District Court, but actions continue.
5. Order of June 1, 1983 defies Rules of Civil Procedures in more than one court. It is in violation of Appellant's Civil Rights to the entrance of Default Judgment against Appellees - Answer to Complaint filed five months out of time (laches) during Appellant's third demand for entrance of default.
6. It further the Philadelphia Housing Code Bill 780 App. by Mayor 11-12-81 effective January 12, 1982 - Requiring entrance in any court relative to housing, eviction, rents court costs - A VALID LICENSE.
7. In view of above the U.S. District Court Order dated June 1, 1983 is invalid - NULL AND VOID and Appellees are in default for damages to Appellant, etc.

D- REFERENCE TO OFFICIAL AND UNOFFICIAL REPORTS OR ANY OPINIONS

1. Order entered June 1, 1983 by the United States District Court (att.exh.) of Pa. is Null and Void as as original Removal Action docketed in U S Supreme Court on February 28, 1983 and lower court proceedings are stayed.
2. Order entered June 1, 1983 is in violation of Appellant's Civil Rights under the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as it was made by a single judge after another Direct Appeal was officially docketed in the U S Supreme Court on May 31, 1983 No. 82-6850, with four (4) Supersedeas Bonds posted to further stay proceedings.
3. Order of June 1, 1983 defies Rules of Civil Procedure and Appellate Procedure under the Federal Rules of Civil and Appellate Procedure in violation of Appellant's right to the entrance of DEFAULT JUDGMENT - after a Third Demand Made by Appellant - Tomlinson Ct. Apts. filed an answer to Complaint, five months out of time (5 months) and guilty of laches.
4. Order entered on June 1, 1983 defies the Fair Housing Act of 1968 - the Phila. Housing Code Bill 780 effective Jan. 12, 1982 requiring a VALID LICENSE TO ENTER AN APPEARANCE IN COURT relative to housing claims, evictions, or right to rent. Tomlinson Ct. Apts. has only applied for a license in May of 1983 and although a corporation (Wynne Hill Dev. Corp) have used a name of Harriet B. Kravitz as sole owner - said license is Null and Void.
5. Because Tomlinson Ct. does not have a valid license to conduct business as required or to enter an appearance in any court relative to housing questions, all proceedings are null and void they are in Default in the U. S. District Court.

JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

E - GROUNDS ON WHICH JURISDICTION OF COURT IS INVOKED

This case falls within the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as state Court action was removed according to 1443 - because it was part of Discrimination in Housing Complaint as above cited 82-1409 Case already on appeal in the U.S. Supreme Court - three appeals timely filed. original appeal filed within time to stay all lower court proceedings. on Feb. 28, 1983. Order as well as all proceedings null and void in lower courts.

Order entered on June 1, 1983 is not valid as it defies Housing Code Ordinance of the local branch of Federal Government requiring a valid license to conduct business or enter an appearance in court relative to housing issues - PHILA. HOUSING CODE Bill No. 780 app. by Mayor 11-12-81 - Effective Jan. 12, 1982.

F - CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 (28 USC 1447-1443 (1) is unconstitutional as it does not seem to apply to people of all national origins. The Fair Housing Act of 1968 is unconstitutional as it does not apply to people of all national origins. The laws of Congress as enacted do not seem to apply to all people regardless of national origin.

The U. S. Supreme Court Rule PART VIII- Rule 28-2 is not valid as it does not apply to all national origins.

Order entered on June 1, 1983 made by a single judge is invalid and in violation of all above without a valid license presented in US District Court by Tomlinson Ct. Apts. All filings by Tomlinson Ct. Apts. invalid as a license not presented and must be vacated and record transmitted to the U. S. Supreme Ct.

G - CONCISE STATEMENT

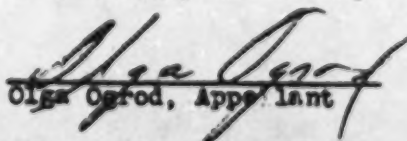

Appellant who has filed an Appeal (Direct Appeal in Removal) officially docketed in U. S. Supreme Ct on February 28, 1983 staying all lower court proceedings demands that all proceedings in above cited case 82-1409 be vacated and record transmitted to the U S Supreme Ct. Order entered on June 1, 1983 made by a single judge without the presentation of a VALID LICENSE by Tomlinson Ct. Apts. during stay of proceedings is unconstitutional and in violation of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Fair Housing Act of 1968, Civil Rights Act of 1966 as amended Phila. Housing Code Bill No. 780 effective January 12, 1982 a local branch of U. S. Government.

H - WHY QUESTIONS ARE SO SUBSTANTIAL

This case involves the Constitutionality of atleast three Acts of Congress- Civil Rights Act of 1964 - Fair Housing Act of 1968 Civil Rights Act of 1866 as amended to include National Origin - US Supreme Court Rules Part VIII - Rule 28 - 2 as well Housing Code Ordinance of local branch of Federal Government - Phila. Housing Code 780 effective January 12, 1982 requiring a valid license to collect rent, evict or file any housing claims in courts or administrative agencies.

IF ANY ACT OR RULE OF COURT DISCRIMINATES AGAINST A NATIONAL ORIGIN, IT IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.
